

Beth-El Congregation Committees

We welcome you to Beth-El! Below are opportunities for you to provide a service to the congregation while getting to know others! Please consider joining at least one of the committees listed below. Thank you!

Name (Adult #1): _____ Phone/Email: _____

Name (Adult #2): _____ Phone/Email: _____

Adult Adult

#1 #2

- Art Exhibits: Arranges for different artistic and historic displays in the Board Room.
- Archives: Preserves, organizes and displays artifacts of the Congregation.
- Budget & Finance: Provides oversight of the financials of the Temple, project annual income and expenses, review the financial needs of the congregation and oversees the investments and endowments.
- Building Preservation and Enhancement: Oversees interior and exterior décor, artwork, living tribute, and memorial dedications.
- Caring Congregation: Tends to special needs of congregants who maybe ill, in need or when there is a loss in the family.
- Endowment Committee: Monitors the endowment funds of the Temple
- Docents: Conducts tours of the temple for visitors.
- Fund Raising: Plans and promotes activities which raise operating funds for the Temple.
- Grounds: Supervises the landscaping and grounds of the building.
- Library: Maintains and staffs the library. Jobs may include checking, shelving, special displays or rearrangement of books.
- Lifetime Learning: Plans and facilitates enriching educational programs, including book discussions, film series, and more.
- Membership: Promotes and preserves congregational membership. Plans and provides outreach to new members including new member activities.
- Boomers Group: Plans social activities for adult congregants.

- Personnel: Oversees employee business & health insurance, administrative staff, administrative procedures, employee policy manual.
- Religious School: Oversees and monitor the religious school budget, policies and curriculum; advises and provide resources and support to the Education Director and religious school.
- Safety and Security: Oversees the safety and security of the Temple by implementing policies and procedures that promote safety of congregants, staff, and visitors during regular working hours, Shabbat services, and high holy days.
- Social Action: Develops sustainable projects (example: the clothing/school supply drive at De Zavala Elementary school) and responds to needs that arise in both the Jewish community and the larger Fort Worth community.
- Synaplex: Plans the choices you might find in a “Cineplex.” It is a unique way to coordinate activities to express Judaism through learning, culture, and prayer during Shabbat services.
- Technology: Oversees the technology needs of the congregation.
- Worship: Coordinates with the Rabbis and Educational Director regarding Shabbat services, schedule bimah honors during high holy days, and coordinates with the cantor during high holy days.
- Young Families: Organizes bonding and social activities for young families with children 7 years and younger.
- Youth: Oversees and coordinates activities for the youth group including URJ camp, FWFTY, and BEJY.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES:

- Office Help: (weekdays between 9 am to 5 pm)
 - Serves as receptionist answering phone and greeting visitors
 - Proofread monthly bulletin
- Gift Shop: Assists in gift the shop with sales and stocking
- Religious School: Assists the Educational Director during the week at your convenience or during high holy day events, and Sunday during religious school.
- Roving Ambassador at Shabbat Services: Greets guest and introduce them to other at the Oneg.